DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

Could anyone possibly forget that gorgeous shade of blue that surrounds Dubrovnik? Whether your wedding party is large or small, it will be a sight to behold. Dubrovnik, which is nestled on the coast between Slovenia and Bosnia, is influenced by both Italian and Latin cultures while upholding its strong Croatian heritage. Stay at the Villa Agave, which offers 24-hour butler service—just what every bride-to-be needs. Say your "I do's" on the seaside terrace of the Museum of Modern Art Dubrovnik. Don't worry about arranging a judge; the on-site coordinators can plan that (as well as a day trip to the nearby archipelago of Elaphiti Islands for kayaking around Lopud or just taking in the dramatic landscapes and quiet Mediterranean bays). After the ceremony, you and your new spouse can enjoy a Vespa ride down the Stradun (the main street) to the Pile Gate, whose old stone walls guard the heart of the city. It's the perfect backdrop to snap wedding pictures while your guests await your return while snacking on traditional Croatian dishes at the Defne Terrace and Wine Bar.
