Going on safari is physically demanding in the best of times. That's why we admire this trip: Extraordinary Journeys' 11-day Botswana Safari for Limited Mobility Travelers.

Using wheelchair-accessible accommodations and 4-by-4 handicap-ready vehicles, the safari features game drives, luxury accommodations at safari camps and a chance to see wildebeest, zebras, lions and more.

For this trip of a lifetime, prices are not cheap. But this is a fair price for this type of custom safari for any traveler — $6,360 per person and up, based on four people in the group, international airfare additional. For details see
