SAFARIS

Luxury Trip to a Zambian Plain

The luxury Africa safari tour company Extraordinary Journeys has introduced a 12-day trip, Liuwa Plain: Remote & Untraveled Zambia. Showcasing top sights in Zambia, it includes one night in the capital, Lusaka; four nights in Liuwa Plain National Park; four nights in South Luangwa National Park; and two days in Livingstone near Victoria Falls. Guests will spend four nights in Matamanene Camp, a four-tent property that is the only safari camp in the 1,400-square-mile Liuwa Plain. The trip includes guided walking tours in Liuwa's grassy plains and woodlands, and game drives in search of wildebeest, zebras, cheetahs and more than 330 bird species.

Prices range from $11,100 to $12,500 a person for travel between April and November (dates flexible), and includes 11-nights' accommodation, internal flights and guided activities. Pricing assumes four travelers for the charter flights from Lusaka to Liuwa.
