Harboring a secret (or not so secret) desire to trade in your briefcase for a nomadic safari lifestyle? Make it so, at least for a few days: Extraordinary Journeys is offering two intensive "menscapes" that allow participants to put away their cufflinks and hone their trekking skills in the company of members of the Maasai community.

The six-night Warrior Awakening takes place in Kenya in the hills of the Loita Naimina Enkiyio Forest, adjacent to the Maasai Mara and Great Rift Valley. The itinerary for the extended nine-night Maasai Footsteps includes three nights at Serengeti National Park in Tanzania. Perks include three days with famed Kenyan guide Alex Walker.

Available through June 30 and again from Nov. 1–30, packages include air and ground transport in Africa, all meals and drinks, superior accommodations, game drives in 4X4 vehicles, laundry services and park entrance fees. International airfare and gratuities are not included. Rates per person, based on double occupancy, begin at $2,950 for the six-night option and $6,800 for the nine-night adventure.
