

Sign In | Subscribe

FULL MENU

NEWS

SPORTS

ENTERTAINMENT

CLASSIFIEDS

TRAVEL

JUNE 6, 2016 1:00 AM

Travel deal: Support cheetahs, rhinos on safari trip to Namibia

HIGHLIGHTS

The deal: Interact with Africa's animals without causing harm. Extraordinary Journeys' seven-day private Guided Namibia Safari visits and supports the Cheetah Conservation Fund, as well as the Desert Rhino Camp, home to a large population of the rare black rhino and center for rhino research.

BY SOPHIA F. GOTTFRIED

The Record (Hackensack, N.J.)

The deal: Interact with Africa's animals without causing harm. Extraordinary Journeys' seven-day private Guided Namibia Safari visits and supports the Cheetah Conservation Fund, as well as the Desert Rhino Camp, home to a large population of the rare black rhino and center for rhino research.

Cost: Package starts at $4,900 per person, based on double occupancy.

What's included: Lodging for six nights; meals; aircraft transfers; wildlife viewing in a 4x4; English-speaking guides; game park entrance fees; game-viewing and sightseeing activities.

When: Valid for travel in 2016.

Information: extraordinaryjourneys.com.