EXTRAORDINARY JOURNEYS AFRICA OFFERS A 7 NIGHT TANZANIAN SAFARI FOR PRICE OF 5 NIGHTS

New York, NY, January 21, 2014 – Extraordinary Journeys Africa, specialists in luxury bespoke safaris to Africa, is now offering seven days of extraordinary game viewing for the price of five days with its new Tanzania Taste of Safari package. Originally priced at $7,900 per person, this safari of unbeatable value can be booked for only $6,500 per person, valid for travel September and October 2014*. This exclusive itinerary has been created to promote Kuro, Nomad Safari's stunning new luxury camp in Tarangire National Park. Additional days in an exclusive camp in the heart of the Serengeti make this a prime safari experience. Guests who book by March 15th will receive a complimentary night game drive that is exclusive to Extraordinary Journeys Africa.**

Highlights Include:

- Spotting a variety of wildlife in their natural habitats, including elephants, migratory wildebeest, zebra, buffalo, impala, gazelle, hartebeest, eland, oryx and gerenuk;
- Three day exploration in Tarangire National Park while staying at Kuro, an impressive new property set in the central part of Tarangire;
- Four nights at Nomad's Serengeti Safari Camp, a mobile camp that treks the migration patterns of the wildlife;
- A complimentary night game drive at Tarangire for those who book by March 15th.

This Tanzanian journey begins at Tarangire National Park, known for its spectacular baobab trees and breathtaking landscapes. The first three days will be spent viewing extraordinary animals in their natural habitat, such as large herds of elephants, migratory wildebeest, zebra, buffalo, impala, gazelle and more. Guests will stay in Kuro Tarangire, a simple yet sophisticated camp in the heart of the national park, comprised of six open air tents, surrounded by magnificent walking territory and within easy reach of all the park's best wildlife areas.

The second half of the trip will be spent at Serengeti. Comprised of over 3,646,500 acres of protected land, with over three million large mammals roaming its plains, Serengeti is the crown jewel of wildlife spotting in Africa. With a private guide and vehicle, guests will have the freedom to spend their days on guided game drives or relaxing nearer to the camp. The first of its kind, the mobile Nomad's Serengeti Safari Camp provides tranquil, traditional accommodations that move with the migration seasons to allow for the best possible game viewing experience.

For those who are looking for an off the beaten path safari, Extraordinary Journeys is also offering a tour of Tanzania's Remote Southern Circuit. This package is perfect for those who are going back to Africa for a second or third time and are looking for something different. This seven night package includes game viewing at the Selous Game Reserve and Ruaha National Park starting at $5,300 per person for travel from July through October 2014.
