

Nazi history museum in Munich

By Jeanne Cooper

Published 8:09 pm, Thursday, July 23, 2015

1 of 6

PREV NEXT

Conductors of the new Elephant Express tram ride in Hwange National Park in Zimbabwe can stop the train any time to maximize game viewing. (Imvelo Safari Lodges)

New museum

Munich: Dedicated as a place of “learning and remembrance,” the Munich Documentation Center for the History of National Socialism stands on the former site of Nazi headquarters. Exhibitions trace Nazism’s rise in the city and its consequences. www.ns-dokumentationszentrum-muenchen.de

New cruise

New Zealand: AdventureSmith Explorations' three new small ships—carrying 16 to 32 passengers each, and one with a six-seat helicopter on top — explore the South Island's fjords and the North Island's tropical inlets. Seven-day voyages start at $1,800. www.adventuresmithexplorations.com

New hotel

Dominican Republic: The first resort of a new luxury brand, the 112-room AlSol Tiara Collection Cap Cana lies off a white-sand beach at the eastern tip of the island and features suites with marina or ocean views, some with “swim out” access to a pool. Introductory rates from $280 include spa, dining and resort credits. www.tiaracapcana.com

New package

Colorado: The Paddle, Play and Stay package at recently redesigned the Sebastian-Vail provides a lesson for two on the Colorado River from Stand Up Paddle Colorado (from $225 per person, per night). The outfitters also offer half-, full- and multi-day trips on the river and Lake Dillon. <http://standuppaddlecolorado.com>, www.thesebastianvail.com

New tour

Zimbabwe: Run by Imvelo Safari Lodges, the two-hour Elephant Express tram ride through Hwange National Park can stop anytime for a better view of big game. Watch even more wildlife on Extraordinary Journeys' new, nine-night Elephant Express safari, which includes the ride and stays at three Imvelo camps. From $4,000. <http://ejafrika.com>