One-way rental break

You can start a road trip in Florida and wind up in the Eastern states on the cheap with the Florida One-Way Deal (tinyurl.com/cwawued). Spring is the time of year when cars need to be moved from winter snowbird states such as Florida and Arizona to other areas of the country. Avis is offering one-way car rentals from participating Florida locations to states in the East starting at a low $19.95 a day, excluding taxes and fees. Use the code "S705900." Hertz has an Arizona Drive Out (tinyurl.com/cq7xhju) that allows drop-offs in California, Nevada, Colorado, Utah or Wyoming at no extra cost. For Hertz's Arizona deal, use the code "DRVAZ" when making a reservation. Arizona One-Way Savings from Avis (tinyurl.com/cq7xhju) also features unlimited mileage and dropoffs in other parts of Arizona, California and Nevada. A sub-compact car starts at $17.95 a day. Use the code "S826700" when making the Avis Arizona reservation. Caveat: If you pick up or drop off at major airports, you'll get socked with hefty fees. The one-way rates are good through May 31. Hertz, 800-654-3131; Avis, 800-230-4898.

D.C. hotel plus food

The Liaison Capitol Hill Hotel in Washington, D.C., is offering a package that allows you to plan your meals along with your sightseeing. Starting at $179 a night, the hotel spots you a $100 daily credit for food and/or cocktails at its signature and recently renovated Art and Soul restaurant. The Artisanal Fare Escape credit is good at the restaurant or for in-room dining, which is available 24/7. To get the deal, use the code "Newart" when making a reservation. You can peruse menus before you book to make sure the offerings will work for you. The offer is good for stays through Sept. 2, based on availability. Liaison Capitol Hill, 415 New Jersey Ave. N.W. (near Union Station and Capitol Hill); 866-246-2203, tinyurl.com/5d39ev.
