

Finnair Debuts New Business Class Menus

By Jesse Sokolow on 20 September 2013

Finnair announced that it introduced new signature menus in business class on long-haul flights in celebration of the airline's 90th anniversary. The new menus will be available throughout the fall, on flights from New York, Chicago, and Miami.

The menus were designed by top Finnish chefs Pekka Terävä and Tomi Björck. Chef Terävä's menu features classic Finnish cuisine options, such as reindeer filet and organic barley.

Chef Björck's menu focuses more on Thai and Japanese elements, such as butternut squash dressed in Asian spices, and Japanese ramen noodles with spicy salmon. Each menu will be accompanied by various wines.

The new menus are not featured on flights to Chongqing, Xi'an, and Hanoi.

Earlier this year, Finnair became part of a joint business venture between British Airways and Japan Airlines.

Marriott Chateau Champlain, Montreal, Canada – Hotel Review

Known lovingly across the city as "the cheese grater," the Marriott Chateau Champlain is a favorite hotel of business and leisure travelers alike. I visited the hotel during last summer's International Jazz Festival on the holiday weekend preceding Canada Day. The building was erected for the World Expo held in Montreal in 1967 and the building's unique façade, with arched windows, was meant to evoke the design of the nearby rail ...
