

SPECIAL REPORT: Is the CPD still undercounting murders?

CHICAGO

BIG CITY BIG STORIES

JUNE 2015

SUMMER ESCAPES!

BURGER
FACE-OFF
6 TO TRY

LUXE-HOUSE
AUCTIONS
HOW TO WIN

4 great vacation destinations
7 tips for avoiding flight delays
10 essential beach reads

PLUS: The savvy traveler's guide to
Chicago airports

**+
TRANSGENDER KIDS
HOW YOUNG IS TOO YOUNG?

HOW TO

PICK A PERFECT SUMMER DESTINATION

The falling euro, which at $1.12 at the end of April was near its decade low, makes this the right time for a trip to Europe. Save time as well as money by flying to one of these four cities reachable by new direct flights from O'Hare. BY NINA KOKOTAS HAHN

Dublin
United

Flight duration: 7.5 hours
Departure: Daily at 6:05 p.m.
Fare: From $906

High note: New summer service (June 4 to August 17) means more competition for American and Aer Lingus (translation: maybe an occasional sale) and more miles for United MileagePlus members.

Why go now: Ireland is celebrating the 150th anniversary of the birth of the Nobel Prize-winning poet William Butler Yeats this year (yeats2015.com). View the collection of his work at the National Library of Ireland, and take a backstage tour of the Abbey Theatre, which the poet cofounded. And on June 16, relive the events of Ulysses on Bloomsday, the annual celebration of the Irish writer James Joyce.

Helsinki
Finnair

Flight duration: 9 hours
Departure: Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays around 10 p.m.
Fare: From $1,475

High note: The only direct flight available from Chicago, this seasonal offering (through October 17) earns travelers miles with Oneworld (an airline alliance that includes American). Business class travelers score an amenity kit from the Finnish design company Marimekko.

Why go now: It's festival season. Check out Finland's largest arts event, the annual Helsinki Festival (August 14 to 30, $40, helsinginjuhlaviikot.fi), or this summer's concerts at the mod Helsinki Music Centre (June 8 to August 9, $40, stopover.fi), marking the 150th birthday of Finnish composer Jean Sibelius.

Rome
United

Flight duration: 9 hours
Departure: Daily at 6:20 p.m.
Fare: From $1,492

High note: United loyalists can finally skip the connections at Newark or Washington Dulles with this seasonal route (through September 23).

Why go now: The avant-garde decor of the new boutique hotel G-Rough, coupled with its unbeatable Piazza Navona location, makes it a must-stay. These 16th-century digs reek of Roman flamboyance (from $360, g-rough.com).

Dubai
Emirates

Flight duration: 13 hours
Departure: Daily at 8:30 p.m.
Fare: From $1,489

High note: This marks the first time Chicagoans can fly direct to Dubai on glamorous Emirates, with its multicourse meals and eight private first-class suites, no less.

Why go now: Brave summer's heat, with highs in the triple digits, and you'll up your chances of landing a coveted tee time under the stars for cooler, glitzy night golfing at the 18-hole Faldo course at the Emirates Golf Club (from $115, dubaigolf.com).

SAVVY TRAVELER TIP

If you're returning to O'Hare from abroad, speed up your trip through customs with Mobile Passport, a free U.S. Customs and Border Protection app. Fill out your profile and submit your customs declaration forms electronically. Then take an express lane through customs rather than waiting (and waiting) in line. O'Hare, which started using the app in April, is one of only four airports to offer the service. (The others are in Atlanta, Miami, and Seattle.)