

Gallop Through India With Geringer Global Travel

by Debra Bokur

Photo: © Elenatur | Dreamstime.com

Head to India and explore the state of Rajasthan on horseback with Geringer Global Travel's Horse Safari into Leopard's Country. Geringer Global Travel's active 14-day, 13-night journey begins with arrival in Delhi and a day to explore sites including Humayun's Tomb and the tower of Qutub Minar. Along the way, the itinerary takes in a sunrise visit to the Taj Mahal, the Amber Fort, City Palace and a stay at the 19th-century hunting lodge Lakshaman Sagar.

In Bera and Jawai, there's horseback touring through the Kumbhalgarh wildlife sanctuary, home to leopards; camping in mobile tents; a visit to the White Marble Temples at Ranakpur; guided visits to the deserted city of Fatehpur Sikri; a tour of Hawa Mahal (known as the Palace of the Winds); and live performances of music and dance at Bagore Ki Haveli.

Prices begin at $10,140, per person, included: daily breakfast, other meals as specified in itinerary, cooking demo and dinner in Jaipur, meet-and-greet services in major cities, entrance fees to all monuments in the itinerary, an elephant/jeep ride in Jaipur at Amber Fort, a heritage walk and private boat ride on Lake Pichola in Udaipur, a Kachpura heritage walk in Agra and plenty more. Items not included are personal expenses, international airfare, passport and visa fees for India or insurance.