Geringer Global Travel are offering luxury travelers the opportunity to partake on a fifteen-day helicopter journey and immersion experience, topped off with some luxury trappings.

Adventure enthusiasts will delight in this excursion and have the opportunity to partake in various high octane activities. Highlights include a personal helicopter journey over the Himalayas, featuring up close views of Mount Everest and a three-day trek through lush forests and villages, where they will get a chance to connect with locals and visit a school. Guests can also expect some wild life spotting at Chitwan National Park, including an elephant safari (tip: keep an eye out for the one horned rhino) and a 4x4 adventure from Dhulikhel to Panauti to Namo Buddha, passing terraced farmland, villages and great mountain views.

Foodies will enjoy the traditional Nepali slow meal, which will feature six courses at Krishnarpan, the Dwarika Hotel's fine dining restaurant.
