Westport, CT, September 17, 2015 – Once considered as mystical as author James Hilton’s fictional Shangri-La, the landlocked country of Nepal, with its peaks and valleys of breathtaking scenery, has been attracting decades of visitors, from well-heeled luxury seekers to intrepid trekkers and backpackers. In an ongoing effort to help boost tourism in Nepal in the wake of its spring 2015 earthquakes, India and Indian subcontinent travel specialist Geringer Global Travel introduces the 14-day Explore Nepal – Culture, Jungle & Mountains itinerary.

"There is no better time than now to visit Nepal," says Susan Geringer. "Nepal is recovering from its April-May 2015 earthquakes and has now been deemed safe for returning tourists by Nepal's Ministry of Culture, Tourism and Civil Aviation. Tourism has always and continues to be an integral part of the country's economy, especially as additional tourism dollars will continue to boost recovery efforts."

With this consideration in mind, a portion from every booking of Geringer's Nepal itinerary will be made to build Sanjiwani Vocational School, which will offer vocational training to students in Grade 9 and 10.
