Savings On Peru Food Tour

To celebrate the launch of its redesigned website, journeyou offers exclusive savings on an immersive culinary tour in Peru. The travel platform, created by experienced South American travel experts, offers savings of $500 per person when travelers book the superior option of its Peru, History and Fine Foods Tour by March 25.

Starting from $2,474 per person (not including the discount), the eight-day journey includes culinary and cultural experiences in Lima, Cusco, the Sacred Valley and Machu Picchu. Highlights of the itinerary include:

- Preparing your own Pisco Sour and ceviche at an exclusive Peruvian restaurant
- Visiting the Cordano, one of the oldest and most traditional bars in Lima, founded in 1905
- Cooking a traditional Peruvian meal at the home of a local family after picking up fresh ingredients at the market of San Pedro
- Touring the Sacred Valley Region, with a special textile session included
- Exploring Machu Picchu on a professional guided tour
- Visiting the Pachacamac archaeological site, Cusco, Sacsayhuaman Fortress and Ollantaytambo architectural complex
