Launching The Lodge at Kinloch, Cutting Edge New Zealand Golf Resort Design

The Kinloch Club, a Jack Nicklaus Signature course - #1 in New Zealand

The Lodge at Kinloch, opening October 2015, will offer irresistible new heights of golfing escape to discerning lovers of natural beauty and of cutting-edge design – complementing a spectacular, on-site 18-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course, The Kinloch Club voted for 2014, #1 Golf Course in New Zealand by a select team of New Zealand Golf Professionals.

“Having just played Kinloch for the first time I can honestly say this is the number one golf course in New Zealand. For those unable to play the great links courses of Scotland, Kinloch compares with the best of them. A true Links experience with Jack Nicklaus at his best” – Sir Bob Charles.

Created by the much-awarded Treetops Lodge & Estate, The Lodge at Kinloch will feature sparkling one-bedroom junior suites and luxurious one and two bedroom villas in an exclusive, landscaped setting with views over the course to Lake Taupo, the scenic hub of New Zealand's North Island.

Inspired to harmonize with the magnificent 18-hole lakeside links by Jack Nicklaus, the villas were designed by Andrew Patterson, perhaps New Zealand's best internationally known and published architect.

Interiors are skilled by Virginia Fisher, THE New Zealand lodge designer, and feature her signature expansive spaces, huge log fireplaces, vista » « windows, stunning designer details, furnished terraces and sensational marble bathrooms.

“My brief for the main lodge was to emulate a version of the Kinloch region namesake Scottish castle, but with a truly modern 21st century feel. My vision was a baronial feel of lush textures – velvet, fox fur, brass and copper but upon modern calm of whitewash, light and airy. The Bar which harks back to a time of leather and rock surfaces, cowhide, goat fur and burnt wood flooring is masculine and intense. For private dinners or meetings, The Den is regal – soft and warm with silver and gold’s, slate floors and lush New Zealand designed wool rugs. In contrast, a short stroll from the lodge are the luxury villas which are ‘quiet’ in design and harmonise with the magnificent natural setting of this 18-hole lakeside links course. – Virginia Fisher
