Perillo's ItalyVacations.com has announced Perillo Villas, the newest addition to the Perillo family. Under the guidance of their resident villa expert who has personally visited each location, Perillo Villas reports it has hand-selected over 1,000 exclusive homes, apartments and castles for travelers to choose for their Italian vacation.

Located throughout the regions of Puglia, Campania, Liguria, Sardinia, Sicily, Tuscany and Umbria, Perillo Villas guarantees guests the opportunity to immerse themselves in Italian culture, whether they are looking for a rustic experience, a central location for exploring cities, or a venue for a special event.

Villa experiences are tailored to individual client needs, Perillo says, as the properties range from basic to luxury and may accommodate any size from single travelers to a multigenerational group. Round-the-clock support from individual owners and Perillo Villas representatives ensure the highest maintenance of the properties and exceptional client services.

Perillo Villas Options and Tips:

- Properties range from luxury houses, to historical castles to multi-apartment complexes
- Choose from a variety of locations; from a bustling city-center to a remote country locale
- Luxury villas can include private pools, fitness rooms, a private chef and allow pets

For a great deal, book off-season November - March, Perillo recommends.
