Won't be able to catch the Pope when he's visiting the U.S.?

Maybe you can visit the Pontiff on his own turf.

For 2016, the year that Pope Francis has declared as the "Holy Year of Mercy," Perillo Tours is offering the Rome Jubilee 2016 tour, priced from $1,995.

The eight-day, six-night tour is available on select dates next May through August. As a guest of this tour, you'll be part of the Roman Papal audience at the Vatican, go on guided walks of the Vatican Museum and Sistine Chapel, take a walking tour of the Roman Jewish Ghetto, and Visit Castelli Romani.

Included in the package is a stay at NH Giustiniano, airport transfers, daily breakfast, buffet, two lunches, two dinners, taxes, tips, English-speaking guides, wine tasting, vineyard tour, and more.

Airfare is not included.
