Just last year Perillo's Learning Journeys, a division of Perillo Tours and a member of the Yoga Alliance, launched their Nomadic Yoga Journeys series. These unique programs differentiate from other yoga programs by combining immersive travel experiences, like local community projects, with daily yoga and meditation segments. The purpose is to ignite learners' passions ranging from art and music to cooking and photography in destinations all over the world: Europe, Asia, Israel, Latin America and South Pacific.

Each Learning Journey is designed by experienced and qualified educators in that specific field of study, providing life changing encounters for students of all ages: schools and colleges, special interest groups, families, multi-generational, and other small group experiences.

Here is the current trip schedule:

Costa Rica – May 10 – 16, 2015

- Costa Rica – Venture through beautiful Costa Rica, a land alive with natural beauty and energy. Guests will enjoy daily yoga and meditation, farm to table food, community service projects, horseback riding, zip-lining, canopy walks and even a cooking demonstration in a rural mountain village. Prices for this 7-day journey begin at $1,995 per person double.
