Say "I do" surrounded by friends, family and the sweeping views of lush green landscapes, crystal clear waters and dramatic sunsets in St. Barth, the dream destination for a picture-perfect wedding.

Since the introduction of greatly relaxed residency requirements and the passing of marriage equality laws earlier this year, St. Barth Properties, a private villa rental company, has seen an increasing number of couples looking to get married on the island. The company's experienced team is available to help couples coordinate everything from venue selection to inter-island flights, accommodations for family and friends, floral arrangements and more to make a dream wedding come to life.

Highlights of St. Barth Properties' Wedding Services include:

- Concierge Services: St. Barth Properties can coordinate pre- and post-nuptial events, from rehearsal dinners to honeymoons, as well as activities throughout the island. The company even helps with coordinating the required legal documents ensuring a stress-free experience upon arrival;
- Venue Selection: Couples can exchange vows on the beach, at sunset during a private ceremony at your villa or perhaps in a quaint and traditional candlelit church. St. Barth Properties has a collection of carefully curated villas and the island's most distinctive hotels from which to choose the ideal venue and photo backdrop;
- Guest Accommodations: Take the stress out of coordinating guests' accommodations with a selection of 190 private villas and hotels. Let St. Barth Properties' concierge help select villas that will meet the groups' needs, including choosing villas in the same part of the island or arranging transportation to and from venues.

Couples will be put in touch with the company's very own on-island concierge, Magda Votava, who can guide guests through the legal procedures, arrange for documents to be sent to City Hall and advise on the various decisions along the way.

On top of that, couples can work with the talented event designer and current St. Barth resident Djorge Varda to make their wedding vision a reality. With a résumé that boasts positions as the resident florist at Paris's legendary Ritz Hotel and designer extraordinaire for functions and soirées at the Palace of Versailles, Varda can arrange a stunningly simple ceremony on one of the island's pristine beaches or an elaborate, glamorous affair.
