It's low season in the Caribbean — a great time of year to rack up some savings.

Boutique villa rental company St. Barth Properties has a package available to book at five villas through Dec. 14 for at least a seven-night stay.

The Drive, Dine and Relax package includes a car rental, choice of one of two set menus for a private in-villa dinner prepared by a personal chef, cold drinks upon arrival, a beach bag to take home, and concierge services.

Sample pricing: A week at the two-bedroom Villa Enfin is from $3,670 total. Based on a group of four, that's $918 per person for the entire stay — or $131 per night.
