

Another Way to Enjoy the St. Barth Gourmet Festival

Recommend Share Be the first of your friends to recommend this.

Print

The third edition of the St. Barth Gourmet Festival will take place November 3-6, 2016.

Once again, St. Barth Properties is offering an exclusive gourmet package to guests seeking out a taste of the island's flavors during the festival.

Travelers who book a week at one of the following villas will also secure a reservation at one of the four-course Gourmet Festival dining events.

Villa Aurore

Villa Aurore, set upon the hillside of St. Barth, treats guests to sweeping views of the sea.

With five bedrooms and five a half baths, the villa lends itself to a family or group of friends traveling together.

Another option for larger groups is Villa Eternity.

This five bedroom, five bathroom villa is part of the Grand Cru Collection offering additional amenities such as morning delivery of coffee, fresh fruit and French pastries and evening turndown service

Villa Matajagui is ideal for guests seeking an athletic getaway, offering a heated pool, air-conditioned gym and stationary bike.

The two bedroom villa is located in the hillside of Flamands, in close proximity to both the sea and mountain.

With a spacious outdoor living areas, Villa Utopic makes a perfect place to hold an event.

Villa Utopic

The three bedroom villa is also ideal for art lovers, who will enjoy pieces by photographer Désirée Dolron.

Another three bedroom option is Villa Curiosité, located in Lurin.

The villa is ideal for relaxation and enjoying sunset in the pool.

Travelers planning to stay at one of the other villas in St. Barth Properties' portfolio can ask their travel concierge about making a reservation at one of the Gourmet Festival meals.