

Take A Game Of Thrones Tour In Croatia

“All halls lead somewhere. Where there is a way in, there is a way out. Fear cuts deeper than swords.”

If you got your fix from watching the Game Of Thrones premiere on Sunday, then this news is really going to make you happy. If you're heading to Croatia this summer and want to tour the filming locations from the hit HBO show, then Zicasso is offering 7 day tours through Split, Krka National Park, Hvar, Ston and Dubrovnik.

The week long guided tour will take fans of the show to the filming locations and highlights will include Diocletian's Palace and the rugged Klis Fortress where Daenerys memorably plots her return, Dubrovnik which is the real-life setting of King's Landing, lessons in falconry, a trip trip to Krka National Park, and Peljesac Peninsula, known for some of the best wines in Croatia.

Starting at $3,200 per person for double occupancy during the mid season, the package deal also includes 4-star accommodation, breakfasts, transfers from the airports, entrance fees, tour guides who will be English speaking and of course some additional meals and wine tastings.
