

ULTIMATE LORD OF THE RINGS TOUR: A 60TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION TRIP

By Staff Writer | Monday, 11 August 2014

Hey, Lord of the Rings fans, enough cosplaying and following online theories to see if Gandalf really did plan on having eagles fly the ring to Mount Doom; it's time to make the ultimate journey to the motherland. Home to Frodo, Samwise Gamgee, Legolas, Strider (AKA Aragorn) and the loveable Gimli among others, the picturesque country of New Zealand is the setting for Zicasso's Ultimate Lord of the Rings Tour: A 60th Anniversary Celebration trip. Who's as excited as a hobbit at second breakfast?

Taking place over 11 days, travelers will get to explore the country as Tolkien saw it and Peter Jackson created it through adventures in Auckland, Hobbiton, Rotorua, Wellington, Queenstown and Wanaka. Geek out over a behind-the-scenes private tour of the Hobbiton set, snap photos of hard to reach filming locations from the window of your private helicopter and sit in oversized furniture in your LOTR-themed room at the five-star Minaret Lodge.
