Fort Lovrjenac in Croatia.

The U.S. premiere of Season 4 of “Game of Thrones” TV series was this past weekend, and to complement that, Zicasso is offering the “Game of Thrones” Tour: A Unique Tour of Croatia.

The 7-day journey takes travelers to Split, Krka National Park, Hvar, Ston and Dubrovnik, and introduces them to Croatia, featuring the best scenes from the TV series, as well as cultural and historical highlights. Fans will explore newly added filming locations for Season 4 of “Game of Thrones”; get a lesson in falconry, which has been known as the Sport of Kings; sip on wines in the Peljesac Peninsula; and take a catamaran ride across the Adriatic to the island of Hvar.

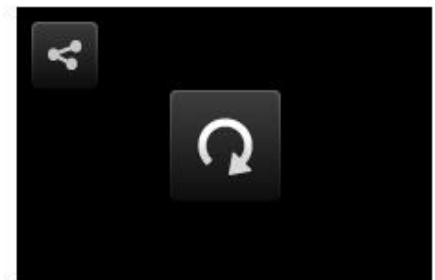

The package includes accommodations in four-star hotels, daily breakfast, airport transfer, land transportation, entrance fees, English-speaking tour guides, some additional meals and wine tastings. Rates start at $3,200 pp dbl. Travelers who book by June 15 will receive Blue-Ray/DVD Combo sets of Seasons 1 through 3, plus the 5-book boxed set of “Game of Thrones” by George R.R. Martin.
